

ALPHA DISPATCH

Route Alpha

Listen for your signal. Walk. Relay.

YOUR ROUTE

BRIEFING

Two sides to this coin — listen to both.

Split into two groups: alpha and beta. Each holds a map meant for the other team's eyes, not their own.

You are in ALPHA.

Talk over radio. Describe what you see — alpha guides beta, beta guides alpha. Neither of you can find your own way alone.

Find a clue, and you'll be the one guiding next. Back and forth, until both paths are found.

YOUR NEXT CLUE

Two bags. Two people. One clue split between them. Somewhere in this group, two of you have been carrying something all day without knowing it. Find the two people, find the two bags, and look inside — the next clue is waiting in both.
